05-29

EXHIBIT 1

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE
IN AND FOR NEW CASTLE COUNTY

STATE OF DELAWARE,

v.

No. 0504012348

RONALD D. JOHNSON,

Defendant.

FRIDAY, APRIL 7, 2006

BEFORE: HONORABLE FRED S. SILVERMAN, J

APPEARANCES:

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

BY: ANDREW VELLA, ESQ., Deputy Attorney General for the State

RONALD D. JOHNSON, Pro Se Appearing Pro Se

TRANSCRIPT OF HEARING

LYNNE BELL COALE

Registered Diplomate Reporter

Certified Realtime Reporter

SUPERIOR COURT REPORTERS

500 N. KING STREET WILMINGTON, DELAWARE 19801

(302) 255-0562

1

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE IN AND FOR NEW CASTLE COUNTY

STATE OF DELAWARE No. 0504012348 RONALD D. JOHNSON, Defendant.

FRIDAY, APRIL 7, 2006

BEFORE: HONORABLE FRED S. SILVERMAN, J

APPEARANCES .

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE BY: ANDREW VELLA, ESQ., Deputy Attorney General for the State

RONALD D. JOHNSON, Pro Se Appearing Pro Se

TRANSCRIPT OF HEARING

LYNNE BELL COALE Registered Diplomate Reporter Certified Realtime Reporter SUPERIOR COURT REPORTERS T Wilmington, pelaware 19801 (302) 255-0562 500 N. KING STREET

He never -- he never made it to -- to be my attorney because I addressed issues to the Court. 3 THE COURT: All right, Well, so we're clear 4 about this, you understand that you have the right to have a 5 court-appointed attorney; is that not correct? 6 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I'm well -- yeah. I'm 7 not having an attorney. We already -- I already had several 8 hearings regarding this issue. All the hearings have been 9 all about what they want to talk about, trying to get me an 10 attorney. And I've already refused, and I stand on my 11 constitutional right to represent myself. 12 THE COURT: Mr. Johnson, I'm not trying to 13 convince to you change your mind about that. Although it 14 was a bad idea then, and it's still a bad idea now, but I'm 15 not here to try to talk you out of it. I'm just trying to 16 make certain that the record is clear that you understand --17 and I think that Judge Herlihy discussed this with you at 18 length at your final case review -- that you understand that 19 you have the right to an attorney and so on. And I'm not 20 going to repeat all of the things that Judge Herlihy would 21 have said back then. 22 The problem I'm having is, I can't find the Waiver-of-Counsel form that you should have signed at the time that Judge Herlihy allowed you to represent yourself. 2 MR. JOHNSON: If you have another one, 3 your Honor, it won't be no problem with me signing it. THE COURT: And I'm in the process of -- now that 5 I've looked at the file. I'll send one down to you. Let me speak to the State for a moment. 7 What are the maximums that Mr. Johnson is facing? 8 MR. VELLA: Let's see. I can tell the Court in a 9 second. 10 Unlawful imprisonment in the first degree and the 11 deadly weapon charge are the most --12 THE COURT: Right, the others are one-year 13 offenses. 14 MR. VELLA: Actually, I know he's got a 15 person-prohibited charge. Everything else is actually one 16 vear, one year, one year --17 THE COURT: Is there a person-prohibited charge? 18 MR. VELLA: Yes, Count 3. Count 3, just let me 19 take a look. 20 THE COURT: Yes, that's right. 21 MR. VELLA: So, he facing two years maximum on 22

1 (Courtroom 6B, 12:00 noon.) 2 3 THE COURT: Good afternoon. 4 MR. VELLA: Good afternoon, your Honor. 5 MR. JOHNSON: Good afternoon. 6 THE COURT: Stand by please for just a moment. I 7 have to look for the full file. 8 Mr. Johnson, when you were allowed to represent 9 yourself, do you recall whether you signed a Waiver of 10 Counsel form at that time, or did you just talk to a judge? 11 MR. JOHNSON: I -- I think I signed -- I signed 12 -- I did both. And there was never an attorney assigned to 13 represent me. 14 THE COURT: Actually, originally, Mr. Facciolo 15 was representing you. 16 MR. JOHNSON: Not Mr. -- we had a hearing on 17 that, and Mr. Facciolo came to the courtroom and told them 18 that he was never assigned. I never requested an afformey. 19 and I proceeded from Court of Common Pleas all the way up 20 into Superior Court. And any -- any -- he -- he said 21 that -- that he was entered in error by -- by -- by -- by 22 them sending him information. They -- basically, this was 23 all impulse, just to decide to assign him as my attorney.

the unlawful imprisonment first degree, it's a Class G

felony, and the deadly weapon, I believe it's 25. Let me

23

	Case 1:05-cr-00029-KAJ Document 20-2	ı File	d 05/24/2006 Page 4 of 15
1	make sure it's not 20.	1	like anywhere from three to 20 years.
2	THE COURT: How many years do you think you're	2	THE COURT: All right, that's fine. I'm not
3	facing, Mr. Johnson?	3	asking you in order to get the right answer. I'm asking you
4	MR. JOHNSON: It's - that's irrelevant because I	4
5	never – that's irrelevant because I never committed any	5	in order to get an understanding of how much you understand
6	•	6	about what you're going through. And if you don't know what
7	offense regarding the charges relating to possession of a		the maximum is, that tells me something.
8	deadly weapon by a person prohibited.	7	Go ahead.
_	THE COURT: Listen carefully to what I'm saying.	8	MR. VELLA: You Honor, I can just briefly give
9 10	This is really important. One of the – let me back up.	9	the penalty ranges.
	As you probably understand, the constitutional	10	THE COURT: Please.
11	right to represent yourself is very important, and the Court	11	MR. VELLA: Unlawful imprisonment is a Class G
12	honors that right, and the Court has allowed to you	12	felony, zero to two years; possession of deadly weapon
. 13	represent yourself. You need to understand that there are a	13	during commission of a felony is Class B felony, two to
14	few conditions to self-representation. There aren't many,	14	25 years, two being minimum-mandatory; possession of a
15	but there are a few.	15	deadly weapon by a person prohibited – in this case, it is
16	One of them is that you can follow the Court's	16	a knife – Class F felony, zero to three years; offensive
17	rules and you can conduct yourself in a way that does not	17	touching of a law enforcement officer, there are one, two –
18	interfere with having the case go forward. Do you	18	two of those charges, and those are a year each; the
19	appreciate what I'm saying?	19	resisting arrests, there are two of those charges, those a
20	MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.	20	year each, zero to one is the penalty. Menacing is an
21	THE COURT: One of the ways that the Court can	21	unclassified misdemeanor, and that is zero to 30 days. And
22	tell whether you can actually do that, which is follow the	22	the final offensive touching is straight-ahead offensive
23	rules and not interfere with the process, is whether you can	23	touching, and that is also an unclassified misdemeanor which
	6		8
1	6 answer a direct question or not.	1	8 will go from zero to 30 days.
1 2		1 2	•
	answer a direct question or not.		will go from zero to 30 days.
2	answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time	2	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the – those are the penalties he
2	answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time that you're facing is irrelevant. Actually, it is not	2 3	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the those are the penalties he is potentially facing.
2 3 4	answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time that you're facing is irrelevant. Actually, it is not irrelevant because the law says that, before you can	2 3 4	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the – those are the penalties he is potentially facing. THE COURT: That's 34 years, 60 days.
2 3 4 5	answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time that you're facing is irrelevant. Actually, it is not irrelevant because the law says that, before you can represent yourself, you have to be told what the maximum	2 3 4 5	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the – those are the penalties he is potentially facing. THE COURT: That's 34 years, 60 days. MR. VELLA: That's what the state is calculating.
2 3 4 5 6	answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time that you're facing is irrelevant. Actually, it is not irrelevant because the law says that, before you can represent yourself, you have to be told what the maximum number of years is. You may not care what the maximum	2 3 4 5 6	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the – those are the penalties he is potentially facing. THE COURT: That's 34 years, 60 days. MR. VELLA: That's what the state is calculating. THE COURT: And a minimum of two years
2 3 4 5 6 7	answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time that you're facing is irrelevant. Actually, it is not irrelevant because the law says that, before you can represent yourself, you have to be told what the maximum number of years is. You may not care what the maximum number of years is.	2 3 4 5 6 7	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the – those are the penalties he is potentially facing. THE COURT: That's 34 years, 60 days. MR. VELLA: That's what the state is calculating. THE COURT: And a minimum of two years minimum-mandatory on the firearms offense.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8	answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time that you're facing is irrelevant. Actually, it is not irrelevant because the law says that, before you can represent yourself, you have to be told what the maximum number of years is. You may not care what the maximum number of years is. MR. JOHNSON: I understand that. I understand	2 3 4 5 6 7 8	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the – those are the penalties he is potentially facing. THE COURT: That's 34 years, 60 days. MR. VELLA: That's what the state is calculating. THE COURT: And a minimum of two years minimum-mandatory on the firearms offense. MR. VELLA: Correct, your Honor.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time that you're facing is irrelevant. Actually, it is not irrelevant because the law says that, before you can represent yourself, you have to be told what the maximum number of years is. You may not care what the maximum number of years is. MR. JOHNSON: I understand that. I understand everything you're saying.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the – those are the penalties he is potentially facing. THE COURT: That's 34 years, 60 days. MR. VELLA: That's what the state is calculating. THE COURT: And a minimum of two years minimum-mandatory on the firearms offense. MR. VELLA: Correct, your Honor. THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Johnson, you can
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time that you're facing is irrelevant. Actually, it is not irrelevant because the law says that, before you can represent yourself, you have to be told what the maximum number of years is. You may not care what the maximum number of years is. MR. JOHNSON: I understand that. I understand everything you're saying. THE COURT: Let me finish, let me finish.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the – those are the penalties he is potentially facing. THE COURT: That's 34 years, 60 days. MR. VELLA: That's what the state is calculating. THE COURT: And a minimum of two years minimum-mandatory on the firearms offense. MR. VELLA: Correct, your Honor. THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Johnson, you can just stay seated there for a moment.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time that you're facing is irrelevant. Actually, it is not irrelevant because the law says that, before you can represent yourself, you have to be told what the maximum number of years is. You may not care what the maximum number of years is. MR. JOHNSON: I understand that. I understand everything you're saying. THE COURT: Let me finish, let me finish. You may not care about that, but I have to ask	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the – those are the penalties he is potentially facing. THE COURT: That's 34 years, 60 days. MR. VELLA: That's what the state is calculating. THE COURT: And a minimum of two years minimum-mandatory on the firearms offense. MR. VELLA: Correct, your Honor. THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Johnson, you can just stay seated there for a moment. You understand that the maximum imprisonment
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time that you're facing is irrelevant. Actually, it is not irrelevant because the law says that, before you can represent yourself, you have to be told what the maximum number of years is. You may not care what the maximum number of years is. MR. JOHNSON: I understand that. I understand everything you're saying. THE COURT: Let me finish, let me finish. You may not care about that, but I have to ask you the question. It's not irrelevant, and I have to get an	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the – those are the penalties he is potentially facing. THE COURT: That's 34 years, 60 days. MR. VELLA: That's what the state is calculating. THE COURT: And a minimum of two years minimum-mandatory on the firearms offense. MR. VELLA: Correct, your Honor. THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Johnson, you can just stay seated there for a moment. You understand that the maximum imprisonment you're facing, if you were convicted on all of these
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time that you're facing is irrelevant. Actually, it is not irrelevant because the law says that, before you can represent yourself, you have to be told what the maximum number of years is. You may not care what the maximum number of years is. MR. JOHNSON: I understand that. I understand everything you're saying. THE COURT: Let me finish, let me finish. You may not care about that, but I have to ask you the question. It's not irrelevant, and I have to get an answer. And when I ask you, do you know how many years	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the – those are the penalties he is potentially facing. THE COURT: That's 34 years, 60 days. MR. VELLA: That's what the state is calculating. THE COURT: And a minimum of two years minimum-mandatory on the firearms offense. MR. VELLA: Correct, your Honor. THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Johnson, you can just stay seated there for a moment. You understand that the maximum imprisonment you're facing, if you were convicted on all of these charges, would be 34 years plus 60 days, and the minimum the
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time that you're facing is irrelevant. Actually, it is not irrelevant because the law says that, before you can represent yourself, you have to be told what the maximum number of years is. You may not care what the maximum number of years is. MR. JOHNSON: I understand that. I understand everything you're saying. THE COURT: Let me finish, let me finish. You may not care about that, but I have to ask you the question. It's not irrelevant, and I have to get an answer. And when I ask you, do you know how many years you're facing, you can tell me either, "Yes, I know," or,	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the – those are the penalties he is potentially facing. THE COURT: That's 34 years, 60 days. MR. VELLA: That's what the state is calculating. THE COURT: And a minimum of two years minimum-mandatory on the firearms offense. MR. VELLA: Correct, your Honor. THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Johnson, you can just stay seated there for a moment. You understand that the maximum imprisonment you're facing, if you were convicted on all of these charges, would be 34 years plus 60 days, and the minimum the best you could hope for if you're convicted on that firearms
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time that you're facing is irrelevant. Actually, it is not irrelevant because the law says that, before you can represent yourself, you have to be told what the maximum number of years is. You may not care what the maximum number of years is. MR. JOHNSON: I understand that. I understand everything you're saying. THE COURT: Let me finish, let me finish. You may not care about that, but I have to ask you the question. It's not irrelevant, and I have to get an answer. And when I ask you, do you know how many years you're facing, you can tell me either, "Yes, I know," or, "No, I don't know, and then we can go from there. But if I	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the – those are the penalties he is potentially facing. THE COURT: That's 34 years, 60 days. MR. VELLA: That's what the state is calculating. THE COURT: And a minimum of two years minimum-mandatory on the firearms offense. MR. VELLA: Correct, your Honor. THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Johnson, you can just stay seated there for a moment. You understand that the maximum imprisonment you're facing, if you were convicted on all of these charges, would be 34 years plus 60 days, and the minimum the best you could hope for if you're convicted on that firearms charge, is two years. You follow all that?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time that you're facing is irrelevant. Actually, it is not irrelevant because the law says that, before you can represent yourself, you have to be told what the maximum number of years is. You may not care what the maximum number of years is. MR. JOHNSON: I understand that. I understand everything you're saying. THE COURT: Let me finish, let me finish. You may not care about that, but I have to ask you the question. It's not irrelevant, and I have to get an answer. And when I ask you, do you know how many years you're facing, you can tell me either, "Yes, I know," or, "No, I don't know, and then we can go from there. But if I ask you how many years and you tell me that's irrelevant,	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the those are the penalties he is potentially facing. THE COURT: That's 34 years, 60 days. MR. VELLA: That's what the state is calculating. THE COURT: And a minimum of two years minimum-mandatory on the firearms offense. MR. VELLA: Correct, your Honor. THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Johnson, you can just stay seated there for a moment. You understand that the maximum imprisonment you're facing, if you were convicted on all of these charges, would be 34 years plus 60 days, and the minimum the best you could hope for if you're convicted on that firearms charge, is two years. You follow all that? MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time that you're facing is irrelevant. Actually, it is not irrelevant because the law says that, before you can represent yourself, you have to be told what the maximum number of years is. You may not care what the maximum number of years is. MR. JOHNSON: I understand that. I understand everything you're saying. THE COURT: Let me finish, let me finish. You may not care about that, but I have to ask you the question. It's not irrelevant, and I have to get an answer. And when I ask you, do you know how many years you're facing, you can tell me either, "Yes, I know," or, "No, I don't know, and then we can go from there. But if I ask you how many years and you tell me that's irrelevant, you're not answering my question. Do you follow me?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the those are the penalties he is potentially facing. THE COURT: That's 34 years, 60 days. MR. VELLA: That's what the state is calculating. THE COURT: And a minimum of two years minimum-mandatory on the firearms offense. MR. VELLA: Correct, your Honor. THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Johnson, you can just stay seated there for a moment. You understand that the maximum imprisonment you're facing, if you were convicted on all of these charges, would be 34 years plus 60 days, and the minimum the best you could hope for if you're convicted on that firearms charge, is two years. You follow all that? MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir. THE COURT: Okay. Then let me hand down the
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time that you're facing is irrelevant. Actually, it is not irrelevant because the law says that, before you can represent yourself, you have to be told what the maximum number of years is. You may not care what the maximum number of years is. MR. JOHNSON: I understand that. I understand everything you're saying. THE COURT: Let me finish, let me finish. You may not care about that, but I have to ask you the question. It's not irrelevant, and I have to get an answer. And when I ask you, do you know how many years you're facing, you can tell me either, "Yes, I know," or, "No, I don't know, and then we can go from there. But if I ask you how many years and you tell me that's irrelevant, you're not answering my question. Do you follow me? MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the those are the penalties he is potentially facing. THE COURT: That's 34 years, 60 days. MR. VELLA: That's what the state is calculating. THE COURT: And a minimum of two years minimum-mandatory on the firearms offense. MR. VELLA: Correct, your Honor. THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Johnson, you can just stay seated there for a moment. You understand that the maximum imprisonment you're facing, if you were convicted on all of these charges, would be 34 years plus 60 days, and the minimum the best you could hope for if you're convicted on that firearms charge, is two years. You follow all that? MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir. THE COURT: Okay. Then let me hand down the Waiver of Counsel form. It's actually two pages now.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time that you're facing is irrelevant. Actually, it is not irrelevant because the law says that, before you can represent yourself, you have to be told what the maximum number of years is. You may not care what the maximum number of years is. MR. JOHNSON: I understand that. I understand everything you're saying. THE COURT: Let me finish, let me finish. You may not care about that, but I have to ask you the question. It's not irrelevant, and I have to get an answer. And when I ask you, do you know how many years you're facing, you can tell me either, "Yes, I know," or, "No, I don't know, and then we can go from there. But if I ask you how many years and you tell me that's irrelevant, you're not answering my question. Do you follow me? MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir. THE COURT: Do you know how many years you're	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the – those are the penalties he is potentially facing. THE COURT: That's 34 years, 60 days. MR. VELLA: That's what the state is calculating. THE COURT: And a minimum of two years minimum-mandatory on the firearms offense. MR. VELLA: Correct, your Honor. THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Johnson, you can just stay seated there for a moment. You understand that the maximum imprisonment you're facing, if you were convicted on all of these charges, would be 34 years plus 60 days, and the minimum the best you could hope for if you're convicted on that firearms charge, is two years. You follow all that? MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir. THE COURT: Okay. Then let me hand down the Waiver of Counsel form. It's actually two pages now. I take it from all of your pleading so far you
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	Answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time that you're facing is irrelevant. Actually, it is not irrelevant because the law says that, before you can represent yourself, you have to be told what the maximum number of years is. You may not care what the maximum number of years is. MR. JOHNSON: I understand that. I understand everything you're saying. THE COURT: Let me finish, let me finish. You may not care about that, but I have to ask you the question. It's not irrelevant, and I have to get an answer. And when I ask you, do you know how many years you're facing, you can tell me either, "Yes, I know," or, "No, I don't know, and then we can go from there. But if I ask you how many years and you tell me that's irrelevant, you're not answering my question. Do you follow me? MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir. THE COURT: Do you know how many years you're facing?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the those are the penalties he is potentially facing. THE COURT: That's 34 years, 60 days. MR. VELLA: That's what the state is calculating. THE COURT: And a minimum of two years minimum-mandatory on the firearms offense. MR. VELLA: Correct, your Honor. THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Johnson, you can just stay seated there for a moment. You understand that the maximum imprisonment you're facing, if you were convicted on all of these charges, would be 34 years plus 60 days, and the minimum the best you could hope for if you're convicted on that firearms charge, is two years. You follow all that? MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir. THE COURT: Okay. Then let me hand down the Waiver of Counsel form. It's actually two pages now. I take it from all of your pleading so far you can read and write; is that right?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	answer a direct question or not. Now, I did not ask you whether the amount of time that you're facing is irrelevant. Actually, it is not irrelevant because the law says that, before you can represent yourself, you have to be told what the maximum number of years is. You may not care what the maximum number of years is. MR. JOHNSON: I understand that. I understand everything you're saying. THE COURT: Let me finish, let me finish. You may not care about that, but I have to ask you the question. It's not irrelevant, and I have to get an answer. And when I ask you, do you know how many years you're facing, you can tell me either, "Yes, I know," or, "No, I don't know, and then we can go from there. But if I ask you how many years and you tell me that's irrelevant, you're not answering my question. Do you follow me? MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir. THE COURT: Do you know how many years you're facing? MR. JOHNSON: For that one charge, no, I don't.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	will go from zero to 30 days. So, those are the – those are the penalties he is potentially facing. THE COURT: That's 34 years, 60 days. MR. VELLA: That's what the state is calculating. THE COURT: And a minimum of two years minimum-mandatory on the firearms offense. MR. VELLA: Correct, your Honor. THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Johnson, you can just stay seated there for a moment. You understand that the maximum imprisonment you're facing, if you were convicted on all of these charges, would be 34 years plus 60 days, and the minimum the best you could hope for if you're convicted on that firearms charge, is two years. You follow all that? MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir. THE COURT: Okay. Then let me hand down the Waiver of Counsel form. It's actually two pages now. I take it from all of your pleading so far you can read and write; is that right? MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

	Case 1:05-cr-00029-KAJ Document 20-2	Filed 05/24/2006 Page 5 of 15
1	that look over our shoulders, and if you're convicted, the	1 handled by a judge in Superior Court here in Delaware. I
2	Supreme Court is going to be looking for this form. So, I	2 don't even think I have a Delaware conviction. I have many
3	have to make certain, when they look for it, they find it.	3 arrests. I don't even I haven't even looked at it so
4	Do you believe that you're competent to represent	4 long to see, but I don't think I have any Delaware
5	yourself?	5 convictions. And I probably been arrested in this court
6	MR. JÖHNSON: Yes, sir.	6 been in this court or – yeah, in this court probably about
7	THE COURT: How far did you go in school?	7 at least 20 – 2 or so times.
8	MR. JOHNSON: 1 I stopped school at the 9th	8 THE COURT: All right. Concerning the two times
9	grade. I attended school for about several years on and off	9 that you've actually represented yourself at a jury trial,
10	after that. Every time it came down to graduating and	10 how did you do on them?
11	things, I lost a job or something happened and, then, I	11 MR. JOHNSON: I won one and I lost one, which is
12	could not finish graduate from these programs. So, I'm,	12 still under appeal. I didn't lose it because I wasn't
13	like, stuck without a degree, but I have very much knowledge	13 right. I lost it because I was biased and prejudiced. And
14	as far as education.	14 it's still under appeal and it's still being fought. That's
15	THE COURT: All right. I'll mark on the form	15 a federal offense charge of tax fraud that's still I'm
16	that you went through 9th grade and I'll indicate that you	16 still fighting it, and that's why I'm on federal probation.
17	have additional education. All right?	17 The case is still being appealed. I was
18	MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.	18 100 percent right. The judge, he didn't – he didn't want
19	THE COURT: Have you ever represented yourself in	19
20	a criminal trial before?	20 THE COURT: We're not I'm not talking about
21	MR. JOHNSON: Yes, I represented myself on all of	21 that now. It doesn't matter for our purposes whether you
22	them, practically, since about 20 years ago.	22 were right or wrong. I'm just trying to find out how much
23	THE COURT: Roughly how many trials have you been	23 experience you've had.
1	10	12
2	to on your own? MR. JOHNSON: About 60.	1 Roughly how long ago was it that you did your
3		2 last jury trial on your own, roughly?
4	THE COURT: You've actually -	3 MR. JOHNSON: Four years ago, three years ago.
5	MR. JOHNSON: Represented myself at 60 trials,	4 THE COURT: So, that would be somewhere in the
6	yes, I did your Honor.	5 2003
	THE COURT: What does the State make of that	6 MR. JOHNSON: 2000 right around Christmastime,
7	contention?	7 close to 2002. I've been representing myself over 20 years.
8 9	MR. VELLA: Given his extensive criminal history,	8 THE COURT: When you did those last two jury
.77	from what I can see he's none to trial on just about	Q triple of the time views in suct also be all to

1	to on your own?
2	MR. JOHNSON: About 60.
3	THE COURT: You've actually
4	MR. JOHNSON: Represented myself at 60 trials,
5	yes, I did your Honor.
6	THE COURT: What does the State make of that
7	contention?
8	MR. VELLA: Given his extensive criminal history,
9	from what I can see, he's gone to trial on just about
10	everything he's ever been arrested on. His criminal history
11	goes back well into the '80s.
12	THE COURT: So, in other words, his
13	representation of 60 self-representations may be correct.
14	MR. VELLA: It wouldn't surprise me,
15	THE COURT: All right. And out of those 60 times
16	that you represented yourself, Mr. Johnson, roughly how many
17	times can you recall standing in front of a 12-person jury,
18	giving an opening statement, roughly.
19	MR. JOHNSON: I went before the jury twice on
20	felony charges.
21	THE COURT: Two separate trials.
22	MR. JOHNSON: Yes, separate trials. Most of most of my charges have been misdemeanors, and they all was trials, at the time, were you in custody? In other words, 10 did you have to prepare for those trials while you were a 11 prisoner? 12 MR. JOHNSON: Yes. 13 THE COURT: All right. I'm mentioning that 14 because it is difficult enough, as I would think you'd 15 appreciate, to represent yourself on a good day. But if 16 you're a prisoner, it makes it even harder to represent 17 yourself because the Department of Correction does not bend over backwards, as you understand, to accommodate inmates 18 19 who are trying to represent themselves. You see what I'm 20 getting at? 21 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir. 22 Your Honor, can I -- can I just speak up? I just want to give my opinion about this, this case right here,

23

	Case 1.03-ci-00029-NA3 Document 20-2
1	this particular case.
2	THE COURT: You'll have a chance, but this isn't
3	the time. And, again, I have to try and do this in an
4	orderly way so that we don't get confused about what we're
5	doing. Right now, I'm working through this Waiver of
6	Counsel form and the issues there. And I'm almost done, but
7	let me finish.
8	MR. JOHNSON: Would you like me to fill it out?
9	THE COURT: No, that's all right. We're okay.
10	Like I say, we're almost done. Stand by for a moment.
11	All right. And I think we've gone through
12	everything that has to be filled out that wasn't.
13	You read all 13 numbered sections of this form
14	carefully, and, then, you signed it?
15	MR. JOHNSON: No, I just signed it because it's a
16	Waiver of Counsel form, and I know I want to waiver counsel.
17	THE COURT: Well, I'm going to hand it back to
18	you. If you don't want to read it, then you can give it
19	back to the bailiff. But I strongly urge you to read this
20	form because you will be held accountable for it.
21	MR. JOHNSON: Can I get a copy of this?
22	THE COURT: Absolutely. In fact, I'll ask the 22

bailiff right now to separate the two pieces and give you

15 1 particular one in front of me. That may have not been - I 2 remember receiving it. That might not have made it to my 3 file. If I can have an opportunity to take a look at it. 4 THE COURT: What I'll do while Mr. Johnson is 5 speaking, as he's asked to do, you'll take a look, please, 6 at that pending motion and, then, we'll talk about that. 7 MR. VELLA: Thank you. 8 THE COURT: Mr. Johnson, the reason why we're 9 actually here is, I'm trying to determine what things need 10 to be addressed before your trial on May 16 so that the 11 trial will begin promptly and it won't be confusing as to 12 what's going on on May 16. And I still have some things I 13 have to do concerning that. But if you would like to speak 14 about anything that is of concern to you relating to this 15 case, I'll give you five minutes to do that now. I have to 16 - if it turns out that, five minutes from now, there are 17 things that we still need to talk about, then we'll 18 continue. But I'm willing to hear you for five minutes to 19 find out what is on your mind and, then, we'll see where we 20 have to go from there. But at the end of five minutes, I 21 may have to stop you and take care of the business that the 22 Court has to take care of.

14

23

the copy. All right? 2 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir. 3 THE COURT: Now, I need to speak to the prosecutor for one, two minutes tops. And, then, when I'm 4 5 done doing that, Mr. Johnson, you'll have an opportunity to 6 say the things that you want to say. 7 But first let me ask the State, as far as the 8 State understands it, I assume that the State knows that 9 there was a motion filed April 3 that's denominated "Filing 10 and Copy of Discovery that the State Provided the 11 Defendant," which what I have here is one page with 12 attachments. 13 Other than that motion, which I believe is 14 pending, from the – and which I'll have to talk about that 15 in a few moments after Mr. Johnson has an opportunity to 16 speak – what, if anything else, is pending as far as the 17 State knows? 18 MR. VELLA: Your Honor, as far as the State 19 knows, all other motions have been summarily denied. 20 THE COURT: All right. 21 MR. VELLA: And that's the only thing that's 22 outstanding.

Quite frankly, candidly, I don't have that this case for the next five minutes.

2 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I'd like to give you a 3 copy of this here, this Supreme Court ruling, Mapp v. --4 Mapp v. Ohio. 5 THE COURT: The bailiff will take your copy.

So, please feel free to speak as you see fit on 6 MR. JOHNSON: I don't have - I was only able to 7 bring one copy. I need copies, one for you and the Attorney 8 General.

9 THE COURT: All right. Just give me a moment. 10 All I need to do is write down the citation for it. This is 11 Mapp v. Ohio?

12 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: Fine. Go ahead. We're returning the 14 case to you.

15 MR. JOHNSON: I don't have a very good copy of 16 this, but I'd like the Court to have a copy of this, if it's 17 not too hard. This is -- this is the fruit-of-the-18 poisonous-tree doctrine, exclusionary rules - exclusionary 19 rules, and other -- other authorities regarding suppression 20 of evidence illegally obtained by unlawful - unlawful and 21 unconstitutional breaking and entrance without a warrant or 22 search warrant -- illegal search and seizure, more or less, 23 because the charges of the officers under the exclusionary

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

rule all came from illegal search and seizure, breaking in my house without a warrant.

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

10

11

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

I have a copy of the officer's police report, saying that he received false information to kick in my door and that's how they got the officer's charges from illegal search and seizure, by kicking in my door. They kicked in my door without a warrant, without a search warrant, and without probable cause. They could have - they could have went and got a search warrant, but they chose not to. And. therefore, it led to four charges which - which is two resisting-arrest charges and two offensive-touching charges.

I'd like those four charges banned from the Court because they was obtained by illegal search and seizure as the law - as the Supreme Court ruled in Mapp v. Ohio, and that's the fruit-of-the-poisonous-tree doctrine dictating as the exclusionary rule dictates.

I'd like - I'd like to - if need be, I'd like to - in support of that, I'd like to give you a copy of the officer's testimony -- his police report saying why he kicked in my door. It's - he kicked in my door mainly for - for one reason: That - that he was told by officers that - that I had threatened to kill myself and that -yeah, that I had threatened -- that I barricaded myself in

1 harmed – threatened to harm myself or that I had a knife.

19

2 Those are all false statements that - to falsify a

3 reasonable grounds kick -- kick in my home door.

4 And had they went and got a warrant and said, 5 "Hey, we got a warrant, we want you to open the door, we're 6 going to kick it in," I would have opened the door and let 7 them in because I knew for a fact that I had - that I had 8 not committed any offense. But I knew, also, that I wasn't 9 going to open the door because they was -- they was hostile 10 and that they - that is was going to lead to them - it was 11 going to lead to issues like resisting arrest or something 12 -- they was going to make up some kind of offense and they 13 was threatening, so I didn't open my door.

THE COURT: All right. Do you have other arguments that you'd like to make besides the Motion to Suppress argument that you just made?

MR. JOHNSON: Yes. I'd like to - I'd like to --I entered my plea of not guilty by reason of incompetency and insane. At the time of this offense, I was on - I take 100 milligrams of Seroquel, which puts me out each night. Due to the - I hadn't been in any conflict or anything prior to that date. And it was just so much going on at that time, that I - I - went and took six -

18

1 my house and that I had threatened to kill myself, and no 2 other -- that -- that never happened and there's -- there's 3 -- there's nothing -- and I have every police report here, 4 and there is no -- no police report backing that statement. 5 And - nor did I tell anybody that I was going to kill 6 myself. And they never - and his own police report says 7 that he never spoke to me, that any of the officers never 8 spoke to me regarding that, so it's no way possible that I 9 could have told them that I was going to kill myself. They made up this here false - false - false statement to kick in my door. That would be Officer Unger's - Unger's 12 warrant.

I gave you a copy of discovery that the prosecutor gave me. If you look at Officer U-N-G-E-R, Officer Unger's statement why he kicked in my door, you'll find that he said he was told by other officers that I had threatened to kill myself or harm myself and that I was walking around with a knife. This is -- and if you look at the other officer's statement, they was looking at my window the whole time, so there's no way they could have believed I was walking around with a knife when they was - when they - when all these officers was looking in my windows and things, it was impossible for them to believe that I had

600 milligrams of Seroquel which would - totally put me in

2 incompetent situation, while I was not - and I intend to

3 use four -- I need discovery from the prosecutor. I need

4 discovery from the prosecutor regarding that, that medical

5 - they had my stomach pumped. And I have the officer's

6 statements of my - how long I stayed unconscious. I gave

7 you a copy of their warrants in discovery that the State

8 gave me. In all of their - in all of their statements,

9 they said that - that when they visit me in the hospital.

10 that I was knocked out, that I was un - that I was

11 unconscious the whole time. I was unconscious even when

12 they kicked in my door. 1 -- I tried to listen to what they

13 said and everything like that, but I - I was - I was not

14 competent at the time of this offense.

15 As far as -- as far as he -- even the charges 16 itself, this - this offensive touching he's accusing me of, 17 bumping the officer. I didn't resist the arrest. I bumped 18 the officer after the officer attacked me to take me down 19 for a - for an arrest, or detention, or whatever their 20 intent was at that time. I don't even know they had 21 intended to arrest me at that time. Maybe - I wasn't sure 22 they had a full investigation of enough Information to even 23 make an arrest. But that taken down -- the first offense he's talking about is an offensive touching where an officer took me down to the ground.

1

2

8

- 3 Now, the officer asked me to stand up and, then, 4 in his own police report he sits there and say that I -- I 5 couldn't move, or I wouldn't move, or I couldn't move. Of 6 course, I couldn't move. I was not only - I was on --7 under 400 - 600 milligrams of Seroquel. I couldn't even
- 9 THE COURT: Are you suggesting that you want to 10 raise an insanity defense?

stand up, but I did because he commanded me to stand up.

- 11 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, that's going to be one of my 12 - that's going to be one of my defenses. That's going to 13 be one of my defenses. And the other - other defense is 14 the exclusionary rule because they illegally kicked in my 15 house without a warrant or search warrant. Those are going 16 to be my two defenses regarding the officers' charges, along 17 with innocence of the charges. I mean, I'm - I'm also not 18 only -- I didn't -- it's not the fact only that I was not 19 competent, it's the fact that I didn't even do it. This 20 officer, they – they attacked me.
- 21 In their own police report, they're telling you 22 - this man is accusing me of resisting arrest when he -23 and then he backs it by saying that four - it was six

- Attorney General I got Mr. Vella's discovery information,
- 2 where he -- he -- he asks to Michelle to contact him May 12.
- 3 2005. Michelle was not at that address. That was not
- 4 Michelle's address in the first beginning. He don't have an
- 5 address for Michelle Roebuck. So, I want to eliminate
- 6 Michelle Roebuck's charges prior to trial to prepare for
- 7 issues that are going to be relevant for trial, when he
- 8 already knows he don't have a victim, and he already knows
- 9 he's not going to win on - on the issues regarding Michelle
- 10 because Michelle is not going to be at trial. Michelle is
- 11 not even from the state. I paid her way here temporarily to
- 12 visit me, and she's gone back to -- to -- out of state.
 - THE COURT: All right.
- 14 MR. JOHNSON: If I can eliminate the charge 15 relating to her, I can - we can - we can go forward with 16 the charges relating to the officers' charges.
- 17 THE COURT: All right. I follow you on that.
- 18 Anything else?

13

1

2

15

20

- 19 MR. JOHNSON: And there's one -- and I'd like to
- 20 - I'd like to slowly - slowly try - and not only
- 21 eliminating Michelle charges, I'd like to eliminate at least
- 22 one or two of the other charges, based on -- on the fact
- 23 that the police -- the police officers, police report says

22

- 1 officers on top of me. Now, he wants - and, then, he wants
- 2 me to move my hand around to my back, when he just said -
- 3 when he just contradicted hisself, that it was officers
- 4 holding my hand - me down, hand, foot and body.
 - If if I want really, what I want, an - opportunity, is to address these issues with the -- with the
- 7 State and have the State respond to - to defend whether or
- 8 not I'm right or wrong on these issues regarding -
- 9 regarding whether my competency at the time of the offense,
- 10 because I'm saying, in their own police report, they said
- 11 that I wasn't competent.

5

6

- 12 THE COURT: All right. The things that you've
- 13 raised so far are the question of suppression, your intent
- 14 to rely on an insanity defense, and toward that end, you
- 15 need discovery of medical reports. And you've also argued
- 16 that you are not guilty as a matter of fact.
- 17 MR. JOHNSON: Yes. And, your Honor, I'd like a
- 18 hearing, a hearing before trial. This is --
- 19 THE COURT: Yes, a hearing on what?
- 20 MR. JOHNSON: To - on - a hearing to -- to
- 21 eliminate the -- the charges that -- that's not going to
- 22 make any progress.
- 23 For - I got the - I got the - the - are the

- that I didn't even commit the offense. This man this
- Andrew -- Officer Alfree is -- he's -- he's a person that's
- 3 sitting back, looking at situations and naming charges out.
- 4 Now, he says sitting back saying that I tried to
- 5 hit Corporal Simpson with my - he' accusing me of offensive
- 6 touching, that I hit Corporal Simpson with my chest.
- 7 Corporal Simpson - so that would be offensive touching.
- 8 But Corporal Simpson's police report plainly says that I
- 9 attempted to hit him. I'm not accused of attempt. I'm
- 10 accused of offensive touching with my body, trying to hit
- 11 him chest to chest. That would eliminate - based on
- 12 Corporal Simpson's own police report, it would eliminate the all written down, what each officer's statement is saying --

- 13 charge of offensive touching.
- 14 And any charge that -- there may be -- I got it
- 16 contradicting what Officer Alfree is saying. He's saying
- 17 I'm resisting arrest at times, where other officers are
- 18 saying he - and I'd like to eliminate Officer Alfree's one
- 19 offense. He gets me with a resisting-arrest charge for not
- listening to his command. But I got a police report I 21 got the police report, saying that it was five officers in
- 22
 - front of him giving commands. And he himself says that he himself says that I listened to Officer Simpson, which I

1	did. He told me to stand up, while they was telling me -
2	some said, "Get on the floor." Some said, "Stand up." Some
3	said, "Put your hands behind your back." Some said, "Show
4	your hands." And I said I looked at Officer Simpson and
5	said, "What do you want me to do?" He says, "Stand up."
6	That's what I did.
7	So, I mean, he everything's contradicting that
8	- that all the evidence of the police reports itself is
9	leading to the fact that there is no that there was no
10	resisting as a matter of fact, resist arrest, he's
11	accusing me of resisting arrest by not obeying his order, an
12	order to put my hand behind my back when he cut when all
13	the other officers, him and the other officers are all
14	saying that he was not the person in charge.
15	Am I getting anywhere with that, what – are you
16	understanding where I'm coming from?
17	THE COURT: Right now, what I'm trying to do,
18	Mr. Johnson is, is to get you to finish telling me the
19	things you think need to be considered before trial. You've given me a list of them so far, including now, several that it needs to get a jury to find you guilty.

times, you've told me that you're able to demonstrate that you're not guilty, that the State doesn't have the evidence

Please don't repeat yourself. What else? 2 MR. JOHNSON: All right. I need - I need - I 3 want -- I want -- I got some discovery I want, extra 4 discovery I want the State to provide. 5 The State says that they were called - the 6 officer -- the State is claiming that the officers was 7 called to -- to a domestic violence involving a knife. So, I'd like -- I'd like the 911 transcripts of that call, 9 saying that -- that they was called regarding the knife. 10 THE COURT: All right. That -- that is mentioned in the motion that you filed on April 3, and that's - those 11 12 are things that I have to deal with now. 13 Other than what's in the motion that you filed on 14 April 3, is there anything else? 15 MR. JOHNSON: Yeah, this is - this is in there. 16 too. 17 I want to understand why I -- why I went to Court 18 of Common Pleas several times and why I went to this court 19 over a couple times, asking for preliminary hearing 20 transcripts when -- I mean, I want the preliminary hearing 21 transcript because that -- that holds evidence --22 THE COURT: Mr. Johnson, I have to cut you off.

26

23

1 is there anything else on the list of things? 2 MR. JOHNSON: I'd like to -- this is not my 3 exclusionary hearing. Like I said, I'd like a hearing to 4 exclude some of the charges prior to going before the jury. 5 THE COURT: Right. 6 MR. JOHNSON: By -- if the officer is telling me 7 that I - I'm being accused by an officer who's saving I 8 committed offensive touching. But the actual officer who 9 the offense -- who -- who -- that it's claimed that I 10 offensively touched is saying himself that I did not 11 offensively touch him. It seems -12 THE COURT: Anything else? 13 MR. JOHNSON: If I can get an exclusionary 14 hearing, then, to - a hearing to eliminate - elimination 15 hearing, then - I can put forth evidence to show them that 16 - that it would be almost practically impossible to get a 17 conviction, or I can ask the Court for a dismissal of the 18 charges based on lack of evidence. 19 THE COURT: Anything else? 20 MR. JOHNSON: Yeah, I also - I want - I want -21 like -- the part -- I guess I already said that, I want a 22 hearing to eliminate the charges of Michelle Roebuck. 23 THE COURT: That's right, you've said that.

28 preliminary hearing transcript in the motion you filed on 2 April 3.

Like I said a moment ago, you asked for a copy of the 3 MR. JOHNSON: Okay.

THE COURT: And I'll deal with that.

MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir. I'm -- I'm --

6 THE COURT: Is there anything else besides what 7 we've already discussed and what you've indicated in your 8 April 3 motion, which includes the 911 call, the preliminary 9 transcript record, the medical records - we've talked about 10 them already, or at least you did - and photographs taken 11 by the police?

12 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir. That --

13 THE COURT: What else?

14 MR. JOHNSON: That will wrap it up for me.

15 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Have a seat.

16 Let me turn to the State now.

> With respect to the suppression of evidence, the Court already appreciates that the same motion was filed on January 19, 2006, and that it was denied in a summary order by another judge on February 23. So, the motion to suppress has already been denied once.

21

But having said that, let me ask you, Mr. Vella, what - quickly, what is the basis for the search here?

20

21

22

23

17

18

19

20

22

7

R

20

21

22

23

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

1 MR. VELLA: It seems to me, without a record, 2 that the basis for going in was a -- a public-safety 3 exception, exigent circumstances exception. 4 THE COURT: And -5 MR. VELLA: They were called to a crime scene 6 where there's a guy barricaded inside, possibly overdosed 7 with pills. 8 THE COURT: Do you have a police report and so 9 forth that outlines that? 10 MR. VELLA: Sure. 11 THE COURT: Could you send it up? 12 MR. VELLA: I'm sorry, the only copies I have in 13 front of me are redacted, but I will give you the relevant 14 ones. 15 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I'd like to speak for 16 one second, if you - if you don't mind. 17 THE COURT: I'm going to try this, Mr. Johnson. 18 But one of the things that we're going to establish is the 19 ground rule that you speak; other people speak; if 20 necessary, you get an opportunity to reply. 21 And the history of this case has been pretty

State answered which, now, the State gives a response which I would have been able to rebut which didn't never happen. So, I'm asking the Court - regardless of what the prior

3

4 judge said, since the judge never gave a finding of fact and 5 conclusion of law in support of the their order, I think

6 this: That - that a judge, okay -

THE COURT: I hear you, Mr. Johnson.

Mr. Vella -- have a seat. Mr. Johnson.

9 Mr. Vella, on the one hand, even in his argument, 10 - by the way, it is a reason why he's representing himself, 11 Mr. Johnson's representing himself, why it's a bad ideas. 12 But in the process of arguing his motion, he's basically 13 conceded that there were exigent circumstances. On the one 14 hand, he's saying that he was so mentally ill and under the 15 influence of drugs at the time of the search, that he really 16 didn't know what was going on, which supports the police 17 breaking in for his own protection; and, then, on the other 18 hand, he says there's no reason for the police to break in. 19 I hear all of that.

But the fact of the matter is, he asked several times now for a motion to suppress the fruits of the search which the State obviously intends to base on exigent circumstances. The order denying the motion to suppress is corpus being asked for while appeals are pending and motions 2 are pending. And it creates a real administration-of-3 justice problem, to be trying to deal with things coming different directions at the same time. So, I'm willing to hear what you're saying now. But if this takes us off into 6 another direction from what the Court's trying to do, we may 7 not - we may not do this differently.

free-wheeling in terms of motions being filed, appeals being filed, motions while appeals are filed, writs of habeas

Go ahead. What do you want to say?

9 MR. JOHNSON: I think that I haven't had an 10 opportunity - the State denied me numerous motions without

11 the opportunity to hear any -- they don't even know what the

12 State - like, you're just asking him, this case has been 13 going on practically a year, and this is the first time he's 14 been able to answer to why the officers kicked in my door.

15 And that denial came before the State even answered it. So.

16 I think I - I asked for it - I think I asked for a reconsideration. 18 I do got one pending motion in the Court. It is 19 a reconsideration based on the fact I have no finding of 20 fact and conclusion of law why my - why my motion was 21 denied to suppress the evidence of the officers or the 22 officers' charges due to the fact they broke in my house 23 illegally. I think that they should have waited until the summary without explanation. I'm inclined to order a --2 that a suppression hearing be held in the near future and 3 you can bring in your officers.

17

Now, I suppose, when I talk about the request for a preliminary hearing transcript, that might solve the problem. But for the fact that Mr. Johnson is representing himself, if another attorney had said, "The police broke into my client's house and that's how he got into trouble," wouldn't they get a hearing, where the officer would come in and say, "Here's what we did, here's why," and that person would be cross-examined?

MR. VELLA: Yes. But in those cases, the relief requested is to suppress evidence.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Keep going.

15 MR. VELLA: This is not -- this is not a claim 16 upon which the Court can grant relief. It's quite simple. 17 He wants his arrest and charges suppressed. That's like 18 saving.

19 THE COURT: How did you get a weapons offense 20 against Mr. Johnson?

21 MR. VELLA: We did not receive the weapon into 22 evidence based on - well, strike that, because I don't 23 know.

22

23

1

5

8

	Case 1:05-cr-00029-KAJ Document 20-2	File	d 05/24/2006 Page 11 of 15 35
1	The weapons offense has nothing to do with what	1	of the jury?
2	happened inside. The weapon offense is something that	2	MR. VELLA: I don't think they get tried in front
3	happened inside with the police. This happened the	3	of a jury. Those are truly legal issues. And I think
4	police were called because he held his girlfriend at bay	4
5	with a knife.	5	because he's representing himself, it creates an issue and a
6	Now, the facts can't the State would suggest	6	problem, because he's going to try and put that stuff in
7	that the facts and testimony can't be suppressed. We don't	7	front of the jury and say it was unconstitutional. And even
8	have a defendant's statement we're looking to suppress.	8	if the Court is to determine my guess is, even if the
9	•	9	Court is to defermine that they were constitutionally
10	There's no physical evidence that I can think of that we're	1	permitted on the premises, he's still going to argue that to
11	looking to that will suppress that result because there	10	the jury.
12	was a search of the home. He's looking	12	THE COURT: All right. Meanwhile, so you say
13	THE COURT: All right.		that the police break in, and for purposes of argument,
14	MR. VELLA: The State would suggest that he's	13	they've done it illegally, he confronts them, and there's an
15	essentially looking to get everything that happened after	14	altercation, and that generates offensive touching and I
	the door was kicked in, get any charges that he garnered	15	think a resisting-arrest charge or two.
16	dismissed because the entry was illegal. And the State	16	MR. VELLA: That is correct.
17	would just like to take things to the extreme because it	17	THE COURT: What's next?
18	makes the point, I think, more obvious.	18	MR. VELLA: In terms of what?
19	If the police had broken into his home — I say	19	THE COURT: The trial.
20	broken into his home. If they had violated his	20	MR. VELLA: The trial, the officer's testimony
21	constitutional rights and he chose to shoot one of them,	21	about the events.
22	we're not going to suppress the dead body of the police	22	THE COURT: Is that when they found the weapon?
23	officer, the bullet that's found in his head, and we're not	23	MR. VELLA: Your Honor, honestly, I don't know
	24
	34		36
1 2	going to dismiss a murder charge on him.	1	when they found the weapon.
2	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door.	2	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out
2 3	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that	2	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted
2 3 4	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that the police go into the house – and we'll assume, then, for	3 4	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted over a year ago or roughly a year ago and the arrest
2 3 4 5	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that the police go into the house — and we'll assume, then, for purposes of this argument that the police broke in without	2 3 4 5	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted over a year ago or roughly a year ago and the arrest happened in April of 2005? Do you think that maybe it's
2 3 4 5 6	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that the police go into the house – and we'll assume, then, for purposes of this argument that the police broke in without cause.	2 3 4 5 6	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted over a year ago or roughly a year ago and the arrest happened in April of 2005? Do you think that maybe it's time for the State to be able to speak?
2 3 4 5 6 7	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that the police go into the house – and we'll assume, then, for purposes of this argument that the police broke in without cause. MR. VELLA: Okay.	2 3 4 5 6 7	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted over a year ago or roughly a year ago and the arrest happened in April of 2005? Do you think that maybe it's time for the State to be able to speak? You know, I'm being pointed because Mr. Johnson
2 3 4 5 6 7 8	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that the police go into the house – and we'll assume, then, for purposes of this argument that the police broke in without cause. MR. VELLA: Okay. THE COURT: All right? And, then, what happens?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted over a year ago or roughly a year ago and the arrest happened in April of 2005? Do you think that maybe it's time for the State to be able to speak? You know, I'm being pointed because Mr. Johnson is filing papers right and left. The Court is spending a
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that the police go into the house – and we'll assume, then, for purposes of this argument that the police broke in without cause. MR. VELLA: Okay. THE COURT: All right? And, then, what happens? MR. VELLA: He resists arrest and he's arrested.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted over a year ago or roughly a year ago and the arrest happened in April of 2005? Do you think that maybe it's time for the State to be able to speak? You know, I'm being pointed because Mr. Johnson is filing papers right and left. The Court is spending a lot of time dealing with those papers.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that the police go into the house – and we'll assume, then, for purposes of this argument that the police broke in without cause. MR. VELLA: Okay. THE COURT: All right? And, then, what happens? MR. VELLA: He resists arrest and he's arrested. And as far as recovering –	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted over a year ago or roughly a year ago and the arrest happened in April of 2005? Do you think that maybe it's time for the State to be able to speak? You know, I'm being pointed because Mr. Johnson is filing papers right and left. The Court is spending a lot of time dealing with those papers. Now, if the State isn't interested enough in this
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that the police go into the house — and we'll assume, then, for purposes of this argument that the police broke in without cause. MR. VELLA: Okay. THE COURT: All right? And, then, what happens? MR. VELLA: He resists arrest and he's arrested. And as far as recovering — THE COURT: And if the police break into	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted over a year ago or roughly a year ago and the arrest happened in April of 2005? Do you think that maybe it's time for the State to be able to speak? You know, I'm being pointed because Mr. Johnson is filing papers right and left. The Court is spending a lot of time dealing with those papers. Now, if the State isn't interested enough in this prosecution to get on board with the case, the Court's not
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that the police go into the house — and we'll assume, then, for purposes of this argument that the police broke in without cause. MR. VELLA: Okay. THE COURT: All right? And, then, what happens? MR. VELLA: He resists arrest and he's arrested. And as far as recovering — THE COURT: And if the police break into someone's house without justification, you say there's a	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted over a year ago or roughly a year ago and the arrest happened in April of 2005? Do you think that maybe it's time for the State to be able to speak? You know, I'm being pointed because Mr. Johnson is filling papers right and left. The Court is spending a lot of time dealing with those papers. Now, if the State isn't interested enough in this prosecution to get on board with the case, the Court's not going to keep wasting its time over something that's not
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that the police go into the house — and we'll assume, then, for purposes of this argument that the police broke in without cause. MR. VELLA: Okay. THE COURT: All right? And, then, what happens? MR. VELLA: He resists arrest and he's arrested. And as far as recovering — THE COURT: And if the police break into someone's house without justification, you say there's a rule of law that is to the effect that the police — someone	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted over a year ago or roughly a year ago and the arrest happened in April of 2005? Do you think that maybe it's time for the State to be able to speak? You know, I'm being pointed because Mr. Johnson is filing papers right and left. The Court is spending a lot of time dealing with those papers. Now, if the State isn't interested enough in this prosecution to get on board with the case, the Court's not
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that the police go into the house — and we'll assume, then, for purposes of this argument that the police broke in without cause. MR. VELLA: Okay. THE COURT: All right? And, then, what happens? MR. VELLA: He resists arrest and he's arrested. And as far as recovering — THE COURT: And if the police break into someone's house without justification, you say there's a rule of law that is to the effect that the police — someone cannot resist an unlawful arrest?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted over a year ago or roughly a year ago and the arrest happened in April of 2005? Do you think that maybe it's time for the State to be able to speak? You know, I'm being pointed because Mr. Johnson is filling papers right and left. The Court is spending a lot of time dealing with those papers. Now, if the State isn't interested enough in this prosecution to get on board with the case, the Court's not going to keep wasting its time over something that's not
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that the police go into the house — and we'll assume, then, for purposes of this argument that the police broke in without cause. MR. VELLA: Okay. THE COURT: All right? And, then, what happens? MR. VELLA: He resists arrest and he's arrested. And as far as recovering — THE COURT: And if the police break into someone's house without justification, you say there's a rule of law that is to the effect that the police — someone cannot resist an unlawful arrest? MR. VELLA: That is correct.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted over a year ago or roughly a year ago and the arrest happened in April of 2005? Do you think that maybe it's time for the State to be able to speak? You know, I'm being pointed because Mr. Johnson is filing papers right and left. The Court is spending a lot of time dealing with those papers. Now, if the State isn't interested enough in this prosecution to get on board with the case, the Court's not going to keep wasting its time over something that's not important to the State. MR. VELLA: The State. THE COURT: Do you see the position that the
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that the police go into the house — and we'll assume, then, for purposes of this argument that the police broke in without cause. MR. VELLA: Okay. THE COURT: All right? And, then, what happens? MR. VELLA: He resists arrest and he's arrested. And as far as recovering — THE COURT: And if the police break into someone's house without justification, you say there's a rule of law that is to the effect that the police — someone cannot resist an unlawful arrest?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted over a year ago or roughly a year ago and the arrest happened in April of 2005? Do you think that maybe it's time for the State to be able to speak? You know, I'm being pointed because Mr. Johnson is filling papers right and left. The Court is spending a lot of time dealing with those papers. Now, if the State isn't interested enough in this prosecution to get on board with the case, the Court's not going to keep wasting its time over something that's not important to the State. MR. VELLA: The State.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that the police go into the house — and we'll assume, then, for purposes of this argument that the police broke in without cause. MR. VELLA: Okay. THE COURT: All right? And, then, what happens? MR. VELLA: He resists arrest and he's arrested. And as far as recovering — THE COURT: And if the police break into someone's house without justification, you say there's a rule of law that is to the effect that the police — someone cannot resist an unlawful arrest? MR. VELLA: That is correct. THE COURT: All right, go ahead. What's next? MR. VELLA: A person is not entitled to further	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted over a year ago or roughly a year ago and the arrest happened in April of 2005? Do you think that maybe it's time for the State to be able to speak? You know, I'm being pointed because Mr. Johnson is filing papers right and left. The Court is spending a lot of time dealing with those papers. Now, if the State isn't interested enough in this prosecution to get on board with the case, the Court's not going to keep wasting its time over something that's not important to the State. MR. VELLA: The State. THE COURT: Do you see the position that the Court's in right now? MR. VELLA: The State sees the position that the
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that the police go into the house — and we'll assume, then, for purposes of this argument that the police broke in without cause. MR. VELLA: Okay. THE COURT: All right? And, then, what happens? MR. VELLA: He resists arrest and he's arrested. And as far as recovering — THE COURT: And if the police break into someone's house without justification, you say there's a rule of law that is to the effect that the police — someone cannot resist an unlawful arrest? MR. VELLA: That is correct. THE COURT: All right, go ahead. What's next? MR. VELLA: A person is not entitled to further break the law or resist and unlawful — even an unlawful	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted over a year ago or roughly a year ago and the arrest happened in April of 2005? Do you think that maybe it's time for the State to be able to speak? You know, I'm being pointed because Mr. Johnson is filing papers right and left. The Court is spending a lot of time dealing with those papers. Now, if the State isn't interested enough in this prosecution to get on board with the case, the Court's not going to keep wasting its time over something that's not important to the State. MR. VELLA: The State. THE COURT: Do you see the position that the Court's in right now?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that the police go into the house — and we'll assume, then, for purposes of this argument that the police broke in without cause. MR. VELLA: Okay. THE COURT: All right? And, then, what happens? MR. VELLA: He resists arrest and he's arrested. And as far as recovering — THE COURT: And if the police break into someone's house without justification, you say there's a rule of law that is to the effect that the police — someone cannot resist an unlawful arrest? MR. VELLA: That is correct. THE COURT: All right, go ahead. What's next? MR. VELLA: A person is not entitled to further	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted over a year ago or roughly a year ago and the arrest happened in April of 2005? Do you think that maybe it's time for the State to be able to speak? You know, I'm being pointed because Mr. Johnson is filing papers right and left. The Court is spending a lot of time dealing with those papers. Now, if the State isn't interested enough in this prosecution to get on board with the case, the Court's not going to keep wasting its time over something that's not important to the State. MR. VELLA: The State. THE COURT: Do you see the position that the Court's in right now? MR. VELLA: The State sees the position that the
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that the police go into the house — and we'll assume, then, for purposes of this argument that the police broke in without cause. MR. VELLA: Okay. THE COURT: All right? And, then, what happens? MR. VELLA: He resists arrest and he's arrested. And as far as recovering — THE COURT: And if the police break into someone's house without justification, you say there's a rule of law that is to the effect that the police — someone cannot resist an unlawful arrest? MR. VELLA: That is correct. THE COURT: All right, go ahead. What's next? MR. VELLA: A person is not entitled to further break the law or resist and unlawful — even an unlawful	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted over a year ago or roughly a year ago and the arrest happened in April of 2005? Do you think that maybe it's time for the State to be able to speak? You know, I'm being pointed because Mr. Johnson is filing papers right and left. The Court is spending a lot of time dealing with those papers. Now, if the State isn't interested enough in this prosecution to get on board with the case, the Court's not going to keep wasting its time over something that's not important to the State. MR. VELLA: The State. THE COURT: Do you see the position that the Court's in right now? MR. VELLA: The State sees the position that the Court is in right now.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that the police go into the house — and we'll assume, then, for purposes of this argument that the police broke in without cause. MR. VELLA: Okay. THE COURT: All right? And, then, what happens? MR. VELLA: He resists arrest and he's arrested. And as far as recovering — THE COURT: And if the police break into someone's house without justification, you say there's a rule of law that is to the effect that the police — someone cannot resist an unlawful arrest? MR. VELLA: That is correct. THE COURT: All right, go ahead. What's next? MR. VELLA: A person is not entitled to further break the law or resist and unlawful — even an unlawful arrest. Our statute says that. And the State would	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted over a year ago or roughly a year ago and the arrest happened in April of 2005? Do you think that maybe it's time for the State to be able to speak? You know, I'm being pointed because Mr. Johnson is filling papers right and left. The Court is spending a lot of time dealing with those papers. Now, if the State isn't interested enough in this prosecution to get on board with the case, the Court's not going to keep wasting its time over something that's not important to the State. MR. VELLA: The State. THE COURT: Do you see the position that the Court's in right now? MR. VELLA: The State sees the position that the Court is in right now. THE COURT: Do you think you're being helpful to
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	going to dismiss a murder charge on him. What happens is, the police breached the door. THE COURT: I need to know, from the point that the police go into the house — and we'll assume, then, for purposes of this argument that the police broke in without cause. MR. VELLA: Okay. THE COURT: All right? And, then, what happens? MR. VELLA: He resists arrest and he's arrested. And as far as recovering — THE COURT: And if the police break into someone's house without justification, you say there's a rule of law that is to the effect that the police — someone cannot resist an unlawful arrest? MR. VELLA: That is correct. THE COURT: All right, go ahead. What's next? MR. VELLA: A person is not entitled to further break the law or resist and unlawful — even an unlawful arrest. Our statute says that. And the State would suggest, if you take that logically, it doesn't mean he's	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	when they found the weapon. THE COURT: When do you think you might find out what your case is, considering the fact that it was indicted over a year ago or roughly a year ago and the arrest happened in April of 2005? Do you think that maybe it's time for the State to be able to speak? You know, I'm being pointed because Mr. Johnson is filing papers right and left. The Court is spending a lot of time dealing with those papers. Now, if the State isn't interested enough in this prosecution to get on board with the case, the Court's not going to keep wasting its time over something that's not important to the State. MR. VELLA: The State. THE COURT: Do you see the position that the Court's in right now? MR. VELLA: The State sees the position that the Court is in right now. THE COURT: Do you think you're being helpful to the Court?

	and the second of the second o
	Case 1:05-cr-00029-KAJ Document 20-2	File	d 05/24/2006 Page 12 of 15 39
1	completely conversant in the facts of the case. If this	1	THE COURT: No. What are you waving, Mr
2	were my only case, and I was sitting around 24 hours a day,	2	MR. JOHNSON: This is the motion – this is – I
3	I'd know it. But I don't. Because Mr. Johnson has had that	3	gave you a copy of
4	opportunity. The Court has other things on its plate, as	4	THE COURT: You said your motion was filed on
5	does the State, and this has taken up a lot of Court's time,	5	March 21; right?
6	and I appreciate that. This has taken up a lot of State's	6	MR. JOHNSON: Yes. I got that. But I had -
7	time, as well.	7	prior to now, I had asked you to enter in this fruit-of-the-
8	So, I apologize to the Court if I do not know the	8	poisonous tree doctrine, exclusionary-rule doctrine in
9	one detail that the Court is looking for.	9	support of Mapp v. Ohio .
10	THE COURT: With respect to the suppression	10	THE COURT: Mr. Johnson, stop talking to me about
11	question, the Court will schedule a hearing sometime before	11	fruits of the poisonous tree. We're going to have a
12	the end of this month –	12	suppression hearing. That's what fruits of the poisonous
13	MR. JOHNSON: Thank you.	13	tree are about.
14	THE COURT: — on suppression. And the question	14	And with respect to the docket shows that
15	with respect to suppression is the basis for the police	15	there was a filing made on March 21, and it's a motion for
16	entry into the premises. If there were exigent	16	reconsideration.
17	circumstances, then the State's argument that there is no	17	MR. JOHNSON: Okay. I filed a notice of writ
18	evidence to be suppressed, frankly, becomes moot. Moreover,	18	pleading to the Court – to the charges of the case. I did
19	if the Court can determine as a matter of fact, based on an	19	file that, and that's only one page. I filed that on 3/21,
20	evidentiary hearing, that the I'm sorry, that the search	20	2006, and I sent the State a copy.
21	was lawful, then it will have an impact on the way the trial	21	THE COURT: With respect to the medical reports,
22	will proceed and what instructions will be given to the jury	22	which supposedly would support the insanity defense that has
23	on the issue. And that may be a very helpful thing in terms	23	or has not been asserted, or will or will not be asserted,
	38		40
1	of avoiding confusion at trial, if you follow me, Mr. Vella.	1	what does the State know about the medical reports? I think
2	MR. VELLA: I do.	2	these are on Mr. Johnson from the time of his arrest?
3	THE COURT: So, we'll have a suppression hearing.	3	MR. VELLA: That's correct. I have them. I've
4	And I assume that you'll have one of the officers who went	4	not thoroughly reviewed them. I wanted to see what he had
5	through the door available to discuss that.	5	his stomach pumped with, and, honestly, I don't remember.
6	MR. VELLA: I will.	6	THE COURT: Well, they're his medical records. I
7	THE COURT: Mr. Johnson, with respect to your not	7	see no harm in saying —
8	guilty by insanity, Rule 12.2, Criminal Rule 12.2, requires	8	MR. VELLA: I'm happy to
9	a written notice by you. Arguably, the Court could consider	9	THE COURT: By the end of the coming week, would
10	the motion as untimely. You have until the end of this week	10	you send them down to Mr. Johnson?
11	to file your motion, saying that you're going to try and	11	MR. VELLA: Yes.
12	demonstrate	12	THE COURT: With respect to all of the claims

2	MR. VELLA: I do.
3	THE COURT: So, we'll have a suppression hearing.
4	And I assume that you'll have one of the officers who went
5	through the door available to discuss that.
6	MR. VELLA: I will.
7	THE COURT: Mr. Johnson, with respect to your not
8	guilty by insanity, Rule 12.2, Criminal Rule 12.2, requires
9	a written notice by you. Arguably, the Court could consider
10	the motion as untimely. You have until the end of this week
11	to file your motion, saying that you're going to try and
12	demonstrate
13	MR. JOHNSON: I filed one already.
14	THE COURT: When did you file it.
15	MR. JOHNSON: It's dated 3/21, 2006, but I had
16	already filed it. I filed all this stuff upon arrest, for a
17	suppression hearing, upon arrest.
18	THE COURT: The Court needs a response to the
19	MR. VELLA: I have everything that he sent, and I
20	haven't seen that in my stack of papers.
21	MR. JOHNSON: It's only a one-page he can have
22	this copy. He can get a copy of it.

Your Honor, can I - could I please -

2	these are on Mr. Johnson from the time of his arrest?
3	MR. VELLA: That's correct. I have them. I've
4	not thoroughly reviewed them. I wanted to see what he had
5	his stomach pumped with, and, honestly, I don't remember.
6	THE COURT: Well, they're his medical records. I
7	see no harm in saying –
8	MR. VELLA: I'm happy to
9	THE COURT: By the end of the coming week, would
10	you send them down to Mr. Johnson?
11	MR. VELLA: Yes.
12	THE COURT: With respect to all of the claims
13	that Mr. Johnson has made to the effect that the paperwork
14	that's been submitted so far demonstrates on its face that
15	he is not guilty, I assume, Mr. Vella, having been through
16	these sorts of things so many times, that regardless of what
17	the paperwork says, the State believes it has witnesses who
18	will come to Court
19	MR. VELLA: That is correct.
20	THE COURT: ~ and testify under oath in a way
21	that would support all of the charges that are pending
22	against Mr. Johnson?

MR. VELLA: That is correct.

23

2

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

2

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

1 THE COURT: Mr. Johnson, that's what your trial 2 is all about. If you've got statements by State's witnesses 3 that support the idea that they've already said things that 4 prove that you're not guilty, or undermined the jury's 5 ability to find you guilty, that's what the trial is for. 6 But the Court has no mechanism for sorting through evidence 7 before trial to decide whether the State has evidence that's R going to be impeached - that is, contradicted - by trial 9 testimony or pretrial statements and testimony and so forth. 10 And, so, all the motions that are pending that are based on 11 the idea that the paperwork shows that defendant, as a 12 matter of fact, is not guilty of these charges, those 13 motions are all denied without prejudice. That's what the 14 trial is for. 15 With respect to the charges concerning Michelle

16 Roebuck, they fall under the ruling that the Court just made. But let me ask Mr. Vella.

Does the State expect to have Miss Roebuck here. or, will the Court be throwing those charges out on the day of trial? Mr. Johnson makes, as a practical matter, something of a point, that he really should not be forced to 22 prepare with respect to Michelle Roebuck if the State knows 23 now that those cases are not going to proceed to trial.

THE COURT: And they haven't been returned. claimed no -

43

3 MR. VELLA: No, they have not been returned. As 4 far as we know, we're sending our stuff - our 5 correspondence to the correct address.

Now, what I would normally do in a case like this is send the chief investigating officer out a week or two ahead of time, just in case we haven't heard from that victim, and if we find out they have moved, we try and track them down, night by night, day by day.

THE COURT: You understand that it is very unlikely that the Court will continue this old case because Miss Roebuck fails to appear on the day currently scheduled for trial?

MR. VELLA: Absolutely. The State has clear understanding of that. We appreciate the Court - the position that the Court is in with an old case like this.

THE COURT: The most I can do. Mr. Johnson, is what I've done. I can lean on the State to try and determine sooner, rather than later, whether its victim. complaining witness will appear at the trial. But unless the State has information right now, regardless of what you think, that demonstrates that she is not going to appear,

42

2 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir. 3 THE COURT: All right. Then, what's the State 4 say about that? 5 MR. VELLA: Our social worker had early contact 6 with her in the case. We have not had since. Whether she 7 shows up is a risky proposition. But State is not willing 8 to nolle pros the charges ahead of time because it is too often that victims break off contact with us and then show 10 up on the day of trial.

Am I getting this right, Mr. Johnson?

THE COURT: Well, the question that that raises - and, of course, you make an obvious point. But the question that it raises is, does the State at this point have reason to believe that it can contact her for purposes of a subpoena and, if it does not have that information now, when will it? You follow me?

17 MR. VELLA: I follow you. I follow you.

18 THE COURT: She's not going to appear at trial if 19 nobody's ever told her that the trial is --

MR. VELLA: Correct. And I know that we have sent to her last-known address a trial notice. We do that routinely. Whether that last-known address is correct, we have no idea.

then the Court has to wait and see if she appears on the day of trial. The best I can do is encourage the State to let 3 you know about it sooner rather than later.

And I've also told the State that it's on notice that it's unlikely that this case will be continued if she does not appear on the day of trial. But that's pretty much what the Court can do about that, Mr. Johnson. And -

MR. JOHNSON: May I ask, please -

THE COURT: This will probably be the last time that you and I will speak - wait a minute, let me finish one more thing and then you can talk one last time.

With respect to the 911 phone call of the victims and/or witnesses, we may be able to address that at the suppression hearing. If the police acted in response to a 911 call, it would be interesting to know about that. And the first thing State has to do, obviously, do you have the 911?

18 MR. VELLA: I did not subpoena it, assuming it is still in existence. 19

20 THE COURT: Exactly. So, we need an affidavit 21 from somebody with respect to that.

22 I've been told in many cases, Mr. Johnson, that if the tapes are not requested by either the State or the

17

18

19

20

21

1

9

11

12

13

14

15

16

20

21

22

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

1 defense within a certain amount of time, then they just use 2 the tapes over again and the recordings disappear. I'll 3 require State to present an affidavit if the tape is gone. 4 If it's not gone, then the State should produce the 911 5 tape, or a transcript of it, or both, actually. But if the 6 tape's gone, it's gone. All I can do is find out whether 7 the tape is gone or not.

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

6

7

8

16

17

18

19

20

As to the copy of a transcript of the preliminary hearing on April 22, most likely, my understanding is that probably the arresting officer would have testified at the preliminary hearing, would have told his version of what went on. It may be a constructive thing. The Court will order that.

We've talked about the medical records from the Christiana Hospital. The State's going to turn them over.

And, finally, with respect to the pending April 3 motion, the copy of photographs taken by Officer Price, do you have photographs, Mr. Vella?

19 MR. VELLA: The officer has them in evidence. I 20 don't have them in my file, but we can get copies of them 21 once I contact -

22 THE COURT: All right. So, the State will turn them over. The State's turning over the medical records. 1 possession of a deadly weapon by a person prohibited. I'd 2 like to - I'd like a bail reduction to 5,000 - $5,000 on 3 this whole case.

THE COURT: And this is the only thing that's 5 holding you?

6 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

Your Honor, I've been in jail so long, I take back that. I take back that. I'm ready to go to trial and get this over with and start my life a hundred percent free.

THE COURT: Well, I think that that makes sense. The trial is going forward in roughly a month, more than a month. And we'll have a suppression hearing probably, give or take a few days, two weeks from now. And we'll get an idea of whether it's likely that the police are going to be able to prove that you were in possession of a deadly weapon at the time of this thing, which would make you probably guilty of possession of a deadly weapon by person prohibited, even if she doesn't show up.

MR. JOHNSON: That's not even the charge I'm out to challenging. The only charge I'm out to get excluded was the re - two resisting-arrest charges and two offensive-touching charges. And the other charges, they never -- they never saw a witness -- there's nobody going to

- 1 The Court's ordering a transcript of the preliminary 2 hearing. And the State will present something formally 3 about the 911 phone call, either a transcript or an 4 affidavit explaining that the tape no longer exists. 5
 - MR. VELLA: Your Honor, with regard to transcript of 911, what we get is the tape and a printout. We don't get a transcript. But whatever we can get from them, we'll get from them. I'm just letting the Court know.
- 9 THE COURT: All right. Let's cross the bridge if 10 we come to it.

11 I'm quessing, Mr. Johnson, based on my 12 experience, that we're going to find out that there is no 13 tape. I could be wrong, in which case, we can see what they 14 have.

15 What's the last thing you want to say?

MR. JOHNSON: I was going to ask about -- I was looking at the State's last time, according to their paperwork, that they even asked for Michelle, that was back on May 12, 2005. So, way back in 2005, May of 2005, they knew that they didn't have contact with the State. So, I'm

21 asking for a reduction in bail on those charges relating to 22

Michelle, just the - the possession of deadly weapon during 23 commission of a felony, unlawful imprisonment, and testify. They got nobody, not even Michelle Roebuck, that's 2 going to testify that I even had a knife and the knife they 3 got, they did get a knife. They - this - we'll deal with 4 that at that time, like you sald.

46

THE COURT: So -

MR. JOHNSON: The rest of the officers - the rest of the charges are going to be dismissed because Michelle is not going to show up. And, plus, my family and them, and my friends, she wanted to come - I filed a motion to suppress, to get - to separate the charges because she wanted to come to testify for me that none of this never happened, that she never even told the officers that. So, that was - that was --

THE COURT: All of that may be as you say, Mr. Johnson. I don't know. But from what I've seen, and what I'm suspecting, if she doesn't show up, that takes care of the unlawful imprisonment and the possession of a deadly weapon during the commission of a felony. And it's going to leave the offensive touching, the resisting arrest, and the possession of a deadly weapon by a person prohibited charges.

But I don't know. We'll see where it stands. I will order that - we'll try and set up that suppression

	10
1	hearing in the not-too-distant future.
2	And that takes care of today's matters. It's
3	20 minutes after 1:00. I have a 1:15 sentencing calendar
4	based on the hearing we just concluded. We'll take a
5	recess. I'll try to be in as close as 1:30 as I can to do
6	the 1:15 sentences.
7	MR. JOHNSON: Thank you, your Honor, for your
8	help.
9	(Hearing concluded.)
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23

CERTIFICATE OF COURT REPORTER

I, Lynne B. Coale, Registered Diplomate Reporter and Certified Realtime Reporter, Official Court Reporter of the Superior Court, State of Delaware, do hereby certify that the foregoing is an accurate transcript of the proceedings had, as reported by me, in the Superior Court of the State of Delaware, in and for New Castle County, in the case herein stated, as the same remains of record in the Office of the Prothonotary at Wilmington, Delaware.

WITNESS my hand this 22nd day of May, 2006.

Cert. # 165-PS

